A Joke before going to work

One of the jokes that Mev likes to play is...

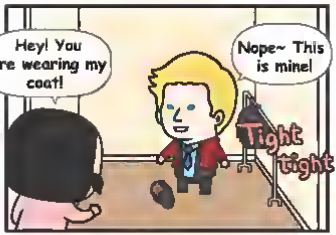
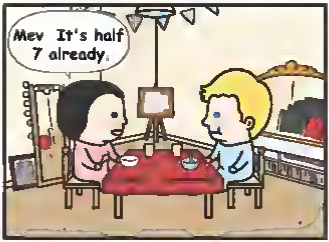
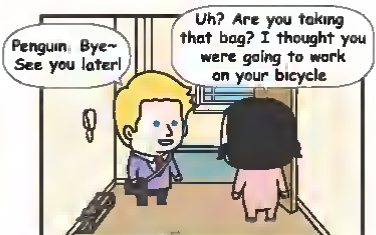
... he pretends to take the wrong bag.



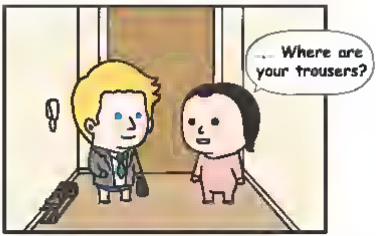
Or he puts my coat on.



..morning jokes that he tries before he goes to work.



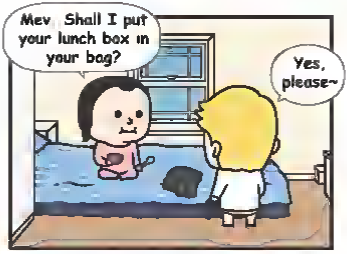
The morning jokes are like these
For example,...



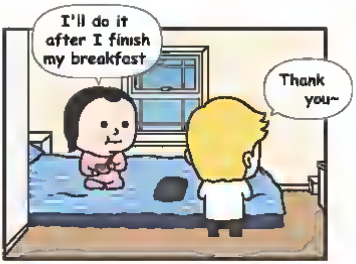
Or he heads to the door without trousers.
These are all very silly jokes.

But his silliness makes me start the day with smile.

Then, recently one morning,



I was eating cereal and watching Mev get dressed.



He put his shirt and tie on.
Then suddenly,...

I could tell that
he was trying a joke

So I held my phone and took some photos of him quickly.

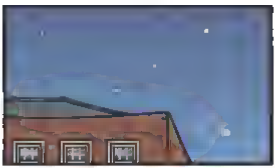
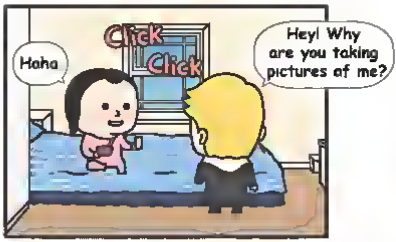
Because we sometimes pretend like this.

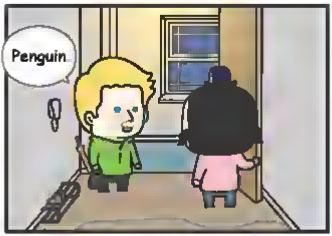


On that evening.

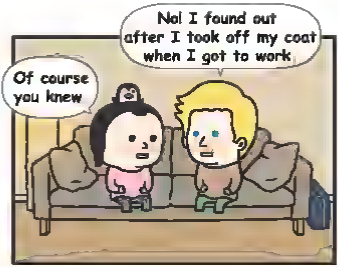


But Mev put on a screen of indifference.

So I also acted like nothing had happened.



When Mev got back home from work, what I heard for the first time from him was...



No! I found out after I took off my coat when I got to work
Of course you knew

You didn't know...?

You are saying that it wasn't a joke...?

Somebody tell me,
is my husband OK?
